Breaking the Ties that Bind

A Silent Retreat for Men

October 1-3, 2010

St. Ignatius was concerned about people who make themselves slaves to the world and its values. In the Spiritual Exercises he proposes ways to become free to seek and find happiness in the will of God. As scripture tells us, "He has come to his people and set them free." This retreat -- through prayer and God's grace -- will help us to locate and to become free of the ties that bind each of us.
